Case No. 09 - 02

ORDER

The Office of Antiboycott Compliance, Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of Commerce ("BIS"), has determined to initiate an administrative proceeding pursuant to Section 11(c) of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)) (the "Act")¹ and the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C.F.R Parts 730-774 (2013)) (the "Regulations"), against Laptop Plaza Inc (aka IWEBMASTER.NET INC)("Laptop"), a domestic concern, organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, based on allegations set forth in the Proposed Charging Letter, dated 25 February 2013 that alleged that Laptop committed seven violations of the Regulations.

¹ Since August 21, 2001, the Act has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent of which was August 15, 2012 (77 Fed. Reg. 49699 (August 16, 2012)), has continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1707 (2000)).

Specifically, the charges are:

1. Four Violations of 15 C.F.R. §760.2(d) - Furnishing Information about Business Relationships with Boycotted Countries or Blacklisted Persons

During the period August 2006 through September 2006, Laptop engaged in transactions involving the sale and/or transfer of goods or services (including information) from the United States to Lebanon and Pakistan, activities in the interstate or foreign commerce of the United States, as defined in Section 760.1(d) of the Regulations.

In connection with these activities, on four occasions, Laptop, with intent to comply with, further or support an unsanctioned foreign boycott, furnished information, concerning its or another person's business relationships with or in a boycotted country, with a business concern organized under the laws of boycotted country, or with a national or resident of a boycotted country, an activity prohibited by Section 760.2(d) of the Regulations, and not excepted.

2. Three Violations of 15 C.F.R. §764.2(i) - Failure to Comply with Recordkeeping Requirements by Failing to Retain and/or Produce Records

During the period August 2006 through September 2006, Laptop engaged in transactions involving the sale and/or transfer of goods or services (including information) from the United States to Lebanon and Pakistan, activities in the interstate or foreign commerce of the United States, as defined in Section 760.1(d) of the Regulations.

In connection with these activities, Laptop failed to retain and/or produce records relating to three of these transactions, as required under Part 762 (Recordkeeping) of the Regulations, in violation of Section 764.2(i) of the Regulations.

BIS and Laptop have entered into a Settlement Agreement pursuant to Section 766.18(a) of the Regulations whereby the parties have agreed to settle this matter in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth therein and the terms of the Settlement Agreement have been approved by me.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

FIRST, a civil penalty of $ 48,800 is assessed against Laptop and shall be paid to the U.S. Department of Commerce within 30 days from the date of entry of this Order. Payment of this sum shall be made in the manner specified in the attached instructions.

SECOND, pursuant to the Debt Collections Act of 1982, as amended (31 U.S.C. §§ 3701-3720E (1983 and Supp. 2001)), the civil penalty owed under this Order accrues interest as more fully described in the attached Notice and, if payment is not made by the due date specified herein, Laptop will be assessed, in addition to the full amount of the penalty and interest, a penalty charge and an administrative charge, as more fully described in the attached Notice.

THIRD, the timely payment of the sum of $ 48,800 is hereby made a condition to the granting, restoration or continuing validity of any export license, permission, or privilege granted, or to be granted, to Laptop.

Accordingly, if Laptop should fail to pay the civil penalty in a timely manner, the undersigned may enter an Order denying all of Laptop 's export privileges for a period of one year from the date of the entry of this Order.

FOURTH, the Proposed Charging Letter, the Settlement Agreement and this Order shall be made available to the public, and a copy of this Order shall be served upon Laptop.

This Order, which constitutes the final agency action in this matter, is effective immediately.

NOTICE

The Order to which this Notice is attached describes the reasons for the assessment of the civil monetary penalty. It also specifies the amount owed and the date by which payment of the civil penalty is due and payable.

Under the Debt Collection Act of 1982, as amended (31 U.S.C. §§ 3701-3720E (1983 and Supp. 2001)) and the Federal Claims Collection Standards (65 Fed. Reg. 70390-70406, November 22, 2000, to be codified at 31 C.F.R. Parts 900-904), interest accrues on any and all civil monetary penalties owed and unpaid under the Order, from the date of the Order until paid in full. The rate of interest assessed respondent is the rate of the current value of funds to the U.S. Treasury on the date that the Order was entered. However, interest is waived on any portion paid within 30 days of the date of the Order. See 31 U.S.C. §3717 and 31 C.F.R. §901.9.

The civil monetary penalty will be delinquent if not paid by the due date specified in the Order. If the penalty becomes delinquent, interest will continue to accrue on the balance remaining due and unpaid, and respondent will also be assessed both an administrative charge to cover the cost of processing and handling the delinquent claim and a penalty charge of six percent per year. However, although the penalty charge will be computed from the date that the civil penalty becomes delinquent, it will be assessed only on sums due and unpaid for over 90 days after that date. See 31 U.S.C. §3717 and 4 C.F.R. §901.9.

The foregoing constitutes the initial written notice and demand to respondent in accordance with Section 901.2 of the Federal Claims Collection Standards (31 C.F.R. §901.2(b)).

6. Laptop understands that BIS will disclose publicly the Proposed Charging Letter, this Settlement Agreement, and the Order, when entered.

7. This Settlement Agreement is for settlement purposes only, and does not constitute an admission by Laptop that it has violated the Regulations, or an admission of the truth of any allegation contained in the Proposed Charging Letter or referred to in this Settlement Agreement.

Therefore, if this Settlement Agreement is not accepted and the Order not entered by the Assistant Secretary for Export Enforcement, BIS may not use this Settlement Agreement against Laptop in any administrative or judicial proceeding.

8. No agreement, understanding, representation or interpretation not contained in this Settlement Agreement may be used to vary or otherwise affect the terms of this Settlement Agreement or the Order, when entered, nor shall this Settlement Agreement bind, constrain or otherwise limit any action by any other agency or department of the United States Government with respect to the facts and circumstances herein addressed.

PROPOSED CHARGING LETTER

25 February 2013

Laptop Plaza Inc
10430 NW 29th Terrace

Attention : Vladimir Galkin,
President

Case No. 09.02

Gentlemen/Ladies:

We, the Office of Antiboycott Compliance, Bureau of Industry and Security, United States Department of Commerce ("BIS"), have reason to believe that you, Laptop Plaza Inc (aka IWEBMASTER.NET INC), have committed seven violations of the Export Administration Regulations (currently codified at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2012)) (the "Regulations"),¹ which are issued under the authority of the Export Administration Act of 1979, as amended (50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)) (the "Act").²

We charge that you committed four violations of Section 760.2(d) of the Regulations, in that, on four occasions, with intent to comply with, further or support an unsanctioned foreign boycott, you furnished information concerning your or another person's business relationships with or in a boycotted country, with a business concern organized under the laws of a boycotted country, or with a national or resident of a boycotted country.

² Since August 21, 2001, the Act has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent of which was August 15, 2012 (77 Fed. Reg. 49699 (August 16, 2012)), has continued the Regulations in effect under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-1707 (2000)).

We also charge that you committed three violations of Section 764.2(i) of the Regulations in that, on three occasions, you failed to retain and/or produce records pertaining to transactions involving a restrictive trade practice or boycott for the five-year period required by the Regulations.

We allege that:

You, Laptop Plaza Inc (aka IWEBMASTER.NET INC), are, and at all times relevant were, a domestic concern, organized under the laws of the State of Delaware; as such, a United States person as defined in Section 760.1(b) of the Regulations.

During the year 2006, you engaged in transactions involving the sale and/or transfer of goods or services (including information) from the United States to Lebanon and Pakistan, activities in the interstate or foreign commerce of the United States, as defined in Section 760.1(d) of the Regulations.

Charges 1 - 4 (15 C.F.R. § 760.2(d) - Furnishing Information about Business Relationships with Boycotted Countries or Blacklisted Persons)

In connection with the activities referred to above, during the year 2006, you furnished to freight forwarders, four items of information, as described in Table A, which is attached and incorporated herein by this reference, about your or another person's business relationships with or in a boycotted country, with a business concern organized under the laws of a boycotted country, or with a national or resident of a boycotted country.

Providing the information described in Table A, with intent to comply with, further or support an unsanctioned foreign boycott, is an activity prohibited by Section 760.2(d) of the Regulations, and not excepted. We therefore charge you with four violations of Section 760.2(d).

Charges 5 - 7 (15 C.F.R. § 764.2(i) - Failure to Comply with Recordkeeping Requirements by Failing to Retain and/or Produce Records)

In connection with the activities referred to above relating to Charges 1, 2 and 4, you failed to retain and/or produce records as required under Part 762 (Recordkeeping) of the Regulations, which applies to, inter alia, transactions involving restrictive trade practices or boycotts described in Part 760 of the Regulations. The recordkeeping requirements of Part 762 include requirements for you to retain all records that you make or obtain relating to a transaction involving a restrictive trade practice or boycott and to retain those records for five years from the date of your receipt of a boycott-related request or requirement. See Sections 762.1 - 762.2 and Sections 762.6 - 762.7.

In addition, where BIS has made a formal or informal request for the production or inspection of any such records, you may not destroy or dispose of the requested records without BIS's written authorization and, absent such written authorization, you must continue to retain the records even if they are ultimately retained for more than the five-year retention period discussed above. See Section 762.6.

Charges 1, 2 and 4 relate to three transactions involving restrictive trade practices or boycotts, as alleged above. As further detailed in Table B, which is attached and incorporated herein by this reference, BIS made a written request for all documents relating to those transactions on or about November 23, 2009, and subpoenaed all documents relating to those transactions on or about March 30, 2010. However, your response indicated that you failed to retain and/or produce any records relating to those three transactions. We therefore charge you with three violations of Section 764.2(i) of the Regulations.

Accordingly, administrative proceedings are instituted against you pursuant to Part 766 of the Regulations for the purpose of obtaining an Order imposing administrative sanctions.³

You are entitled to a hearing on the record as provided in Section 766.6 of the Regulations. If you wish to have a hearing on the record, you must file a written demand for it with your answer. Under Sections 766.3(a) and 766.4 of the Regulations, you are entitled to be represented by counsel or other authorized representative who has power of attorney to represent you and, under Section 766.18 of the Regulations, to seek a settlement agreement without a hearing.

Under the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Flexibility Act, you may be eligible for assistance from the Office of the National Ombudsman of the Small Business Administration in this matter.⁴

If you fail to answer the allegations contained in this letter within thirty (30) days after service as provided in Section 766.6, such failure will be treated as a default under Section 766.7.

As provided in Section 766.3, I am referring this matter to the Administrative Law Judge. Pursuant to an Interagency Agreement between BIS and the U.S. Coast Guard, the U.S. Coast Guard is providing administrative law judge services, to the extent that such services are required under the Regulations, in connection with the matters set forth in this letter.

³ Administrative sanctions may include any or all the following:

- a. A maximum civil penalty of the greater of $250,000 per violation or twice the value of the transaction that is the basis of the violation (see International Emergency Economic Powers Enhancement Act of 2007, Pub. L. No. 110-96, 121 Stat. 1011 (2007)).
- b. Denial of export privileges (see § 764.3(a)(2) of the Regulations); and/or
- c. Exclusion from practice before BIS (see § 764.3(a)(3) of the Regulations).

⁴ To determine eligibility and get more information, please see: <http://www.sba.gov/ombudsman>.
