ORDER DENYING EXPORT PRIVILEGES

A. Denial of Export Privileges of RH International, LLC

On October 18, 2012, in the U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida Tampa Division, RH International, LLC (“RH International”) was convicted of violating the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. § 1701, et seq. (2006 & Supp. IV 2010)) (“IEEPA”). Specifically, RH International was convicted of knowingly and willfully conspiring with other individuals to violate IEEPA and the Iranian Transactions Regulations (31 C.F.R. §§ 560.203, 560.204) by exporting computer and related equipment from the United States through the U.A.E. to Iran without first having obtained the required license from the Office of Foreign Assets Control. RH was sentenced to 12 months of unsupervised probation and a fine of $400.00.

Section 766.25 of the Export Administration Regulations (“EAR” or “Regulations”)¹ provides, in pertinent part, that “[t]he Director of the Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director of the Office of Export Enforcement, may deny the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of a violation of the EAA, the EAR, of any order, license or authorization issued thereunder; any regulation, license, or order issued under the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (50 U.S.C. 1701-1706); 18 U.S.C. 793, 794 or 798; section 4(b) of the Internal Security Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. 783(b)), or section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C. 2778).” 15 C.F.R. § 766.25(a); see also Section 11(h) of the EAA, 50 U.S.C. app. § 2410(h). The denial of export privileges under this provision may be for a period of up to 10 years from the date of the conviction. 15 C.F.R. § 766.25(d); see also 50 U.S.C. app. § 2410(h). In addition, Section 750.8 of the Regulations states that the Bureau of Industry and Security’s Office of Exporter Services may revoke any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses previously issued in which the person had an interest in at the time of his conviction.

I have received notice of RH International’s conviction for violating the IEEPA, and have provided notice and an opportunity for RH International to make a written submission to BIS, as provided in Section 766.25 of the Regulations. I have not received a submission from RH International. Based upon my review and consultations with ¹ The Regulations are currently codified in the Code of Federal Regulations at 15 C.F.R. Parts 730-774 (2012). The Regulations issued pursuant to the EAA (50 U.S.C. app. §§ 2401-2420 (2000)). Since August 21, 2001, the Export Administration Act (“EAA”) has been in lapse and the President, through Executive Order 13222 of August 17, 2001 (3 C.F.R., 2001 Comp. 783 (2002)), which has been extended by successive Presidential Notices, the most recent being that of August 15, 2012 (77 Fed. Reg. 49699, August 16, 2012), has continued the Regulations in effect under the IEEPA.

BIS's Office of Export Enforcement, including its Director, and the facts available to BIS, I have decided to deny RH International's export privileges under the Regulations for a period of 10 years from the date of RH International's conviction. I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act or Regulations in which RH International had an interest at the time of its conviction.

B. Denial of Export Privileges of Related Person

Pursuant to Sections 766.25(h) and 766.23 of the Regulations, the Director of BIS's Office of Exporter Services, in consultation with the Director of BIS's Office of Export Enforcement, may take action to name persons related to a Respondent by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business in order to prevent evasion of a denial order. Mohammad Reza (a/k/a "Ray") Hajian ("Hajian") is the owner and operator of RH International. Hajian pled guilty under 18 U.S.C. § 371 to one count of conspiracy to violate IEEPA for his role in falsifying export control documents in relation to diverting U.S. origin items to Iran via the U.A.E. Hajian was sentenced to 48 months in prison, a $10 million dollar judgment, a special assessment of $100, and one year of supervised probation. Hajian is also the owner and operator of P&P Computers and Nexiant, LLC, which were also convicted of the same crime as RH International in related matters. Therefore, Hajian is related to RH International by ownership, control, position of responsibility, affiliation, or other connection in the conduct of trade or business. BIS believes that naming Hajian as a related person to RH International is necessary to avoid evasion of the denial order against RH International.

As provided in Section 766.23 of the Regulations, I gave notice to Hajian that his export privileges under the Regulations could be denied for up to 10 years due to his relationship with RH International and that BIS believes naming him as a person related to RH International would be necessary to prevent evasion of a denial order imposed against RH International. In providing such notice, I gave Hajian an opportunity to oppose his addition to the RH International Denial Order as a related party. Having received no submission from Hajian, I have decided, following consultations with BIS's Office of Export Enforcement, including its Director, to name Hajian as a Related Person to the RH International Denial Order, thereby denying his export privileges for 10 years from the date of RH International's conviction.

I have also decided to revoke all licenses issued pursuant to the Act or Regulations in which the Related Person had an interest at the time of RH International's conviction. The 10 year denial period will end on October 18, 2022.

Accordingly, it is hereby
